

COMPASS DIRECTIONS have always bothered us.

We have an awful time trying to get orientated when someone asks us whether we are east or west or north or south of some given point.

We prefer to locate things by the left or right bit. (We manage somehow to know which is our left or right hand.)

That's why those signs on the freeway often throw us for a loop. The ones that name the street with an arrow that points north one way and south the other.

We have been trained, of course, to know that the sun rises in the east and sets in the west. So we are ok in the early morning or after the sun starts sinking.

Otherwise it is sort of touch or go.

A CASE IN POINT was last week's story on the new church planned for St. Lucy's. The new $350,000 church will be located just SOUTH of the rectory.

In the story we located the new church properly. But under the picture of the model we placed the new church north of the rectory.

But we are not alone in this directional confusion.

At a recent City Council meeting, Lloyd Fowler, of the County Flood Control District, persisted in getting the east and west sides of the San Tomas Creek confused.

And, shucks, he's an engineer.

FREQUENTLY we learn that just because we don't happen to know something that doesn't necessarily mean that others are equally as ignorant.

That's a little confused.

But to illustrate what we mean--

In chatting with Don French, the architect who designed the aforementioned new St. Lucy's Church and built the model that was on display, there were a couple of technical terms the architect used which we thought needed amplification.

FRENCH mentioned NARTHEX and ATRIUM, as a for instance.

When we used the words in the story, we felt it necessary to define 'em more explicitly, for they were new to us.

We have learned since that those words appear in every Webster's dictionary we have bothered to examine and are quite commonly used in building and architectural circles.

As a result of our edification, we are now waiting for the opportune moment to toss 'em into a conversation or even in this column.

But we are not so sure that would be wise. We would have to be careful.

County census starts

Countdown 66 began on Monday, March 21 throughout Santa Clara County with 1,000 enumerators beginning a week-long campaign to ring every doorbell and interview every household in the county.

The special mid-decade census is being conducted by the County Planning Department with the cooperation of the 16 cities, the State Department of Finance, and the Economic Opportunity Commission.

Purpose of the census is twofold: 1) to get a reliable head count so that local jurisdiction may receive more State returns of gasoline tax dollars and motor vehicle license fees for local projects; 2) to obtain firm facts about people that will help community leaders and agencies in planning and policy-making for schools, parks, hospitals, transportation facilities, and other local services.

Census Director, Robert L. Sturdivant, has urged citizen cooperation to expedite

College defers bond vote; picks site

Trustees reject adding issue to June 7 ballot

There will be no bond issue for junior college construction on the June 7 Primary ballot, the board of trustees of the West Valley College has decided.

Lack of sufficient time to prepare the specifics of the bond proposal and the difficulties described by the county registrar of voters in resetting the precinct boundaries to match the college district lines were the basic reasons cited for the decision of the board in deferring the vote in the bonds.

It had been hoped that the costs of a special election could be saved by including the bond issue on the June 7 ballot when a heavy turnout of voters is anticipated. The June ballot even without the bond issue is expected to be one of the longest in the state's history.

Council meets

A new ordinance regulating home occupations will be before the City Council next Monday night for the first time. The ordinance has been recommended by the Planning Commission.

Other matters on the agenda including public hearings on a zone change on Ridgeley and the proposed Planned Development, which will include a Lucky Stores market on Hamilton Ave., as submitted by Sutter Hill Development Co.

Board selects Santa Clara for first permanent campus

The first complete, permanent campus of West Valley College will be located in Santa Clara, the Board of Trustees of the District decided at a marathon meeting Thursday night.

The vote was 5-2, with a majority of the Board favoring the Santa Clara site in the interest of providing proper facilities for the continuing influx of students as soon as possible, and recognizing that political considerations are involved in pushing the proposed Saratoga site "at this time."

Trustee Ed Panelli, whose motion was adopted said that the Santa Clara municipal government is "making us welcome, whereas apparent strong opposition remains in the Saratoga area to location of the first campus there."

Panelli emphasized that his motion in no way means "scuttling of the Saratoga site," but said he feels that "once we have made a record and have shown that we can operate a first-class campus in Santa Clara, the opposition in Saratoga may change its views."

Chairman Bob Brydon, and Trustees Don Lindstrom, Dr. Edwin C. Browne and William J. Homan all agreed that first interest should be in providing a campus for the students, secondary to political considerations, and therefore favored the Santa Clara site.

Trustee Bruce Allen, while not objecting to the Santa Clara campus, wanted to ensure completion of a proposed overpass of the Dog houses keep planners busy

It was just one dogged dog house after another Monday night at the Planning Commission meeting. By an identical vote (4-3) a "Dog House" restaurant was approved by the Planning Commission while another "Dog House" was turned down to more or less set the theme for the meeting.

But it was sort of in and out of the "dog house" all evening as members of the Planning Commission and Planning Director Dick Hogan attempted to unravel some confused planning and procedural problems.

LETTERS
The confusion began over three letters received requesting action on such diverse matters as:

(1) Extension for one year on the use permit issued to Mrs. Connie Regas for a residence at 80 W. Rincon that has been leased to West Valley College. The house was to be demolished by May 1, 1966;

(2) Request by Ad-Art Sign Co., for a smaller sign than the one proposed for American Auto Supply Co. on the old Clark's Drugs Co.;

(3) Proposed text amendment to the zoning ordinance which would allow pet clinics to operate in a C-1-S zone. The request was made by Walter V. Hays, an attorney who owns property next to Wing's Market. He desires to sell it to Dr. A. P. Cascina, a Palo Alto veterinarian, for a pet clinic. But the present zoning does not allow such an operation.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina ruled that the requests in the letters should not be acted upon by the commission. The City Council had jurisdiction over such matters, he explained, and the proper procedure would be to file for relief with that body.

Present at the meeting were Hays and Dr. Cascina who wanted to explain their request for the zone change to allow the pet clinic. But after Bonacina's ruling, any discussion on the matter was out.

This sort of put Planning Director Hogan in the "dog house." He had invited them to attend to clarify the situation.

But it worked out ok. The commission directed Hogan to draft an ordinance change and present it at a later date for perusal by the commission.

"DOG HOUSE"
But in the meantime back to the original "Dog House" question which sort of started things off for the evening on the wrong paw:

Up for approval by the commission were plans for two "Dog House" restaurants. One would be located at 1651 W. Campbell near La Pradera and the other 315 E. Hamilton near Central. The plans for two restaurants, part of a chain, call for seating capacity of 32 persons each. The plans were submitted by Paul D. Marking.

The commission was concerned about the Hamilton Ave. location because the "Dog House" only used a portion of the property and more or less landlocked the rear portion.

The commissioners were also concerned over the W. Campbell location because of its proximity to the residential area. Several conditions were added to the plans to isolate the restaurant from the homes.

Editorial

Fair to Campbell?

The decision of the West Valley College Board of Trustees that "the first complete permanent campus" of the junior college district will be built in Santa Clara is one of far-reaching importance to all citizens of the district.

It is of special significance to the citizens and students of the Campbell-Los Gatos-Saratoga area of the district, and we feel the decision should be thoroughly scrutinized from every aspect. There are some loose ends that need tying.

We are not convinced that this decision of the board is the proper one. It leaves too many unanswered questions, especially as it pertains to the students in this end of the district.

The decision, for example, implies that a complete and permanent campus is to be constructed as soon as possible in Santa Clara.

This means then that the bulk of the funds derived from the proposed bond issue will go into the building of the Santa Clara campus. We question whether this is a fair way to distribute the district's money, for less than 30 per cent of the students attending West Valley College are in the Santa Clara sphere.

The proposed college in Santa Clara is north of Bayshore. Aside from the overall transportation and traffic problem involved for students from this area in getting to the college, there are the complications of getting across the Bayshore via an overpass that must be constructed by some agency. Which one is an unanswered question at this time.

We concede that the board's decision may be expedient, inasmuch as it could mean that the Saratoga opposition to the bond issue would be throttled.

And possibly it is a good political move.

But there is more to the issue than expediency and politics.

Selfishly we question whether the people in our Campbell area will get a fair shake by the board's action.

We have supported the district's unsuccessful bond issues in the past.

But before we can sincerely support any bond issue in the future we want to see some specifics as to what is going to happen in Campbell for the students and also what is to happen to the present facility that is now used by the college, the old Campbell Grammar School.

And what is the future of the proposed Saratoga site, of which 112 acres have already been acquired?

Whatever happens we are well aware that the West Valley College will be using the old grammar school for many years. How many years depends on many factors, too many.

And this is what concerns us.

We realize that the grammar school site alone is not adequate for a permanent junior college campus.

Yet it is apparently going to be used as a junior college for many years to come.

Is it possible, we ask in all candor, to expand and improve the site so that it can serve a useful purpose in any future development of the West Valley College?

The possibility of acquiring the Campbell High School site across the street as part of the junior college complex, we think, should be explored to the fullest extent.

We admit this may be considered a revolutionary thought in some circles. But we are also aware that in this constant changing educational picture in this area such an acquisition could conceivably be not as far out as it would first appear.

Therefore, we come to the crux of the matter.

We sincerely believe that any proposed bond issue for the junior college district should be a three-pronged affair.

(1) A Santa Clara campus is needed undoubtedly. But it should not be a full-fledged affair and take all the funds from the bond issue.

(2) Funds should be expended from the bond issue for the improvement and expansion of the present Campbell campus in order to make this facility usable to the district on a permanent basis.

(3) Some buildings should be built on the Saratoga campus.

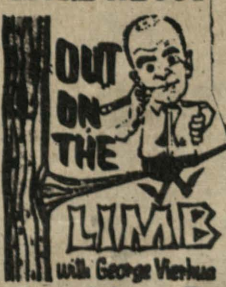

It is inconceivable from where we sit that the Board of Trustees would allow the use of temporary quarters for a college for a 10-year or more period without improving the facilities or exploring the possibility of making it permanent.

We also think it would be grossly unfair to the students and citizens of this area, if the board, in all its wisdom, decrees that the Campbell-Los Gatos area students must attend classes in the cramped quarters of the old grammar school while a spanking new campus in Santa Clara serves less than a third of the students of the districts.

We understand the board will decide on March 31 just what should be included in the proposed bond-issue package that will be placed before the electorate.

We caution the board member to consider all the aspects of the situation before putting all their eggs in one basket.

There still may be a few souls as ignorant as we were.

They might not have access to a dictionary at the moment and wonder if their narthex and atrium were showing.

HEAVY TRAFFIC on the main thoroughfares in the area has become commonplace.

It is not that one ever will become immune to the bumper-to-bumper flow, especially if one remembers the "good old days". But a person does get accustomed to it, in a sort of what-can-you-do-about-it way.

We have long known that the Bascom-Hamilton intersection was a roaring, back-firing, nerve-shattering sort of auto-inferno. But we didn't realize just how busy it was until lately.

Bill Wren, city engineer, recently reported that a current traffic count survey for the entire San Jose metropolitan complex, revealed that the stretch of Hamilton between Bascom and the freeway on-ramp carried more traffic than any other thoroughfare in the area.

If you were just guessing before, now you know, if that makes you feel any better.

THIS SATURDAY, the Campbell police under the guidance of Lt. Don Burr will hold one of the periodical bike auctions. More than 20 bikes, and a number of other odds and ends that the police have picked up on their rounds and have remained unclaimed for months will be offered at the sale that gets under way at 10 a.m.

It is always amazing the number of bikes and other unclaimed articles that the cops gather into their fold.

It just doesn't seem possible that so many people who have had articles stolen or lost haven't located their missing items by checking the police department.

But it happens all the time.

There will always be thefts. And the thieves apparently have no respect for people or places.

RECENTLY, FOR EXAMPLE, we learned that while a man was appearing in Dusty Rhodes' muni court on a traffic charge, tools were stolen from his pickup parked in the court's lot. That's getting pretty close.

And breaking and entering a church is not an uncommon occurrence.

But how come those 20 families that lost their bikes to thieves or otherwise haven't followed through by checking with the police, is beyond us.

They must be different than we are.

Or maybe it is because things have come easier to them.

Every time we have been visited by thieves (fortunately, it has been infrequent) we have been a real pest at the police department.

As a result a number of items that had strayed from our place have been recovered.

But this Saturday, 20 bikes recovered by the cops will be sold because the rightful owners have not shown up to claim 'em.

Just six months ago, Don sold 20 other bikes.

Countdown 66. Cost per question of the census is pegged at $10,000 on a countywide, overall basis, hence speed is important in saving public money.

Sturdivant also asked citizens to make "call-back" telephone calls as soon as possible if the census taker finds no one at home when he rings the doorbell. The enumerator (census taker) will leave a printed notice on the doorknob, requesting that a certain telephone number be called by the householder.

An official advance run of approximately one hour's duration was conducted Saturday, March 19 by the 100 census crew leaders in several areas of the county. Those areas, Sturdivant said, would not be canvassed thereafter.

Car-wash crisis

Although a proposed coin-operated car wash on Hamilton Ave. just east of Bascom received the approval of the Planning Commission Monday night, the applicant was not too happy about it.

The commission tacked on the condition that an attendant must be on duty when the place is open. The applicant, Steve Colen, indicated that it was to be a do-it-yourself thing, and an attendant would hike the overhead too much.

Concerned over the possible nuisance that could develop without an attendant, the commission followed the precedent set in previous cases and added the attendant-clause to the granting of the use permit.

The commission then agreed this condition should be part of the ordinance controlling such operations and directed Planning Director Dick Hogan to draft such a change.

PROMOTED--Ray E. Schreck, manager of Breuner's in Campbell since it opened in 1962, has been appointed general manager for the eight-store chain as of May 1, according to William Breuner, firm president. His successor in Campbell will be Harry Aho, now manager of the Oakland store.

Letters to the Editor

ENJOYS "PRESS"
Dear George:
Just a note with the check for the paper. It is unfortunate that I haven't taken the time to write to you and tell you how much we enjoy The Press. It is our only contact with the "west" and we did so very much enjoy living there.

Best regards to all,
Sincerely,
Ron Sharp

FLUORIDATION
EDITOR'S NOTE: On the ballot in the April 12 Campbell municipal election will be the advisory question on whether the citizens of Campbell desire fluoridation of water.

The Press takes no stand on either side of the question but sincerely welcomes this opportunity to get the citizens' reaction to this highly controversial, medical, emotional and partly religious question.

We think both the following letters (from the same party) are deserving of publication to clarify the issue. G. V.

PRESS ATTITUDE
Dear Mr. Vierhus:
I enjoyed our telephone conversation the other day and respect your views with regard to fluoridation. I am enclosing my thoughts on the subject and hope you will print them in the "Letters to Editor" column, or elsewhere. Your concern and attitude on this issue are known by many of us and we certainly appreciate your honest convictions.

I hope I may be able to talk with you again on this subject.
Sincerely,
Stanley G. Parton

ANTI-FLUORIDATION
Dear Sir:

Much has been written and said about the ill or good effects of fluoridation of the public water supplies.

I believe that fluoridation is WRONG because it violates the individual rights of freedom of choice of all citizens. Any governmental body, be it Federal, State, or local, should not have the power to compel any citizen to submit to unnecessary treatment which violates the demands of his conscience and personal integrity, or his day by day control and responsibility for the care of his own body.

It is a fundamental human right for an individual to choose his own diet and method of health treatment. It is, therefore, obvious that fluoridation of the public water supply prevents this freedom of choice and instead mass medicates every user. The fact is that there are other methods of making fluoridation available, such as tablets, direct application, and other methods that can be used in a large scale community-wide program without infringing unnecessarily on the rights of those who do not want to take part.

It is right that all of us should have the opportunity to vote on the issue, which we will have in Campbell. It especially behooves each of us before he votes to think deeply about the basic issues involved in fluoridation. Compulsory fluoridation can set dangerous precedents for the use of other medicinal agencies in the public water supply.

I am strongly opposed to fluoridation and I hope this letter might induce others to think on this subject.

Sincerely,
Stanley G. Parton
1225 Bent Drive
Campbell, Calif.

ANTI-FLUORIDATION
Dear Sir:

During a recent Public Utility Commission Hearing on the Case of the City of San Jose vs. The San Jose Water Works, Dr. John J. Miller, Ph.D., also National Consultant in Nutrition, West Chicago, Ill., swore under oath that through his personal research and a comprehensive study of a mass of documented evidence by eminent Medical and Scientific authorities, there is positive proof to show a continuous ingestion of fluorine poison daily, year after year, is highly dangerous and injurious to both human and animal life.

According to Dr. Miller, the fluoridation of a city water supply means adding to the toxicity problem of the citizens already heavily subject to fluorine intake from foods, beverages, drugs, insecticides, soils, fertilizers, numerous industrial wastes and the air itself.

It is regrettable that the USPHS has allowed itself in the year 1951 to be led into an endorsement of fluoridating water supplies without proof of safety. Now that a great deal of positive evidence is available, that fluoridation is not safe, their endorsement should be removed and the promotion of fluoridation discontinued.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Alberta B. Peter

Campbell, Calif.

RACE PROBLEM?
Dear Editor:

Twas a very nice editorial in last week's (March 9) issue, well balanced in opinion and logical in conclusion - only one thing wrong - you sidestepped the primary issue!

By an easily recognized device, known as verbal camouflage, you created a minor issue so as to smoke-screen a major one. The problem is not that students nation-wide will descend on West Valley College and deprive local youngsters of a local junior college education - nor create a housing problem - West Valley does not have that reputation and will not have it in the foreseeable future. (I doubt very seriously if they have heard of West Valley J. C. in Stockton.)

The problem is, and you know it, that we have gross racial discrimination in Campbell! - That's the issue Mr. Vierhus. The difficulty faced by the three West Valley students merely veiled the fact of racial bigotry in this community. The problem really is that your newspaper and the City Council of Campbell do not want to face up to the real issue. So we all play verbiage games.

As a subscriber to your paper, Mr. Editor, I request that you not play games with me. Speak to the issue or limit your editorials to nice things, such as

County planners continue hearing on drive-in theater

Members of the County Planning Commission for three hours last Wednesday morning heard pro and con arguments on the proposed drive-in theater to be located just off Union Ave. Then they decided they needed more information and continued the hearing until Wednesday, April 20.

Officials from the City of Campbell led the attack against the drive-in which is proposed for the Andrew Scorsur property at 295 N. Union Ave. and adjacent to the freeway and McGlincey Lane.

The location is in county territory but in Campbell's sphere of influence. Under Campbell's zoning (M-1-S), a drive-in theater would not be allowed but under the county zoning a theater can be constructed provided a use permit is issued by the county planning commission.

It is the hearing on the issuance of use permit that Campbell is protesting and is supported by hundreds of residents in the adjacent areas. A full house, comprised of many of these same householders who journeyed to the hearing by bus and car for the hearing called for 8:30 a.m. last Wednesday.

The continuation to April 20 marks the second time the county planners have deferred action on the controversial question. It was originally scheduled for February 16 but was continued until March 16 when time ran out at the first hearing.

The proposed drive-in is to be operated by Syfy Enterprises who operated the Winchester Drive-In until that theater was displaced by the San Tomas Expressway route.

Nestor Barrett, formerly a planning consultant for Campbell, presented the case for the theater.

Approximately 200 home owners of the area were in the audience at the hearing to oppose the drive-in.

"Settlers Day", traffic lights and drive-in movies.

Yours truly,
A. D. Carson,
Vicar,
St. Lawrence Episcopal Church,
Campbell.

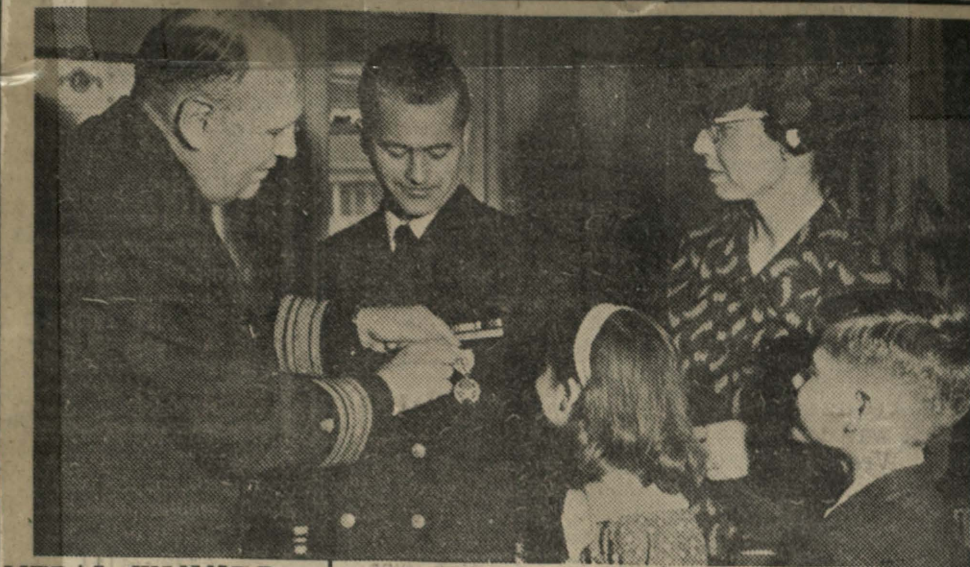

Their spokesman was Donald Lynch of 2575 Oak Park Lane.

Campbell's case was presented by City Attorney Joe Bonacina, Planning Director Dick Hogan and Police Chief John Morgan. The city officials were introduced by City Manager Bob Stephens.

An interesting development occurred in the hearing when it was learned that an access planned by the drive-in theater people would be within the City of Campbell. Bonacina pointed out that this gave the city jurisdiction over this part and he felt that the city could bar access for drive-in purposes without proper zoning.

Patrons for the drive-in would also use Campbell streets, the police chief pointed out, going and coming, for the theater would be located on a 14.6 acre parcel just north of McGlincey Lane between the freeway and Union. Most of those streets are under Campbell jurisdiction.

Basketball comics here Thursday night

Basketball fans in this community are looking forward to an exhibition by the Harlem Clowns at Campbell High School gymnasium tomorrow night, March 24. The fabulous court comics will be here to entertain local fans for one night only.

They will do battle with "The Vow Boys", Campbell's faculty basketball team.

This is the 31st year for the Clowns and during that time they have played thousands of games in the USA, Canada, Mexico and Hawaii. They were originated by Al "Runt" Pullins, one of the great names of comic basketball.

It was Pullins who first tacked the name of "Clown Ball" on this type of play. Pullins was a member of the original Harlem Globetrotters back in the late 1920's.

For an evening of hilarious entertainment the public is invited to attend. Tickets are

WARRIOR WAYS

JULIE GABLE has been chosen first soprano soloist for the Hayden Mass. Julie was the Warrior of The Week two weeks ago, and at that time stated how much she wanted to be the soloist. Congratulations, Julie!

Terry Vierra has won the State Championship for Wrestling in the 120 lbs. bracket. This is the highest award any high school wrestler can win.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK LINDA PERRY

Linda is a member of the A. A. U., and a specialist in the area of shot put. Linda throws the shot at 8 lbs. Linda's thirteen year old sister, Sue, is also in A. A. U., and is, according to Linda a bit more skillful than she. Sue throws a 6 lb. shot 36 ft. 7 1/2 in. Linda throws a very good 30 ft.

Last week I said that Mr. Harington was a co-coach for the team. Actually he is a recruit manager for A. A. U. He attends school meets and various functions inviting girls with athletic ability to join A. A. U.

Linda was born in San Jose and is 16 years old. Her favorite subject is Spanish, and she hopes to someday become a teacher of the elementary grades.

Linda's main goal this year in sports is to "...beat my sister!"

Tax election for Cambrian

Voters in the Cambrian School District are scheduled to go to the polls on Tuesday, March 29, in a tax election to establish a $2.50 rate for the district.

Cambrian has the lowest tax rate for districts of comparable size in the county. Cambrian's present rate is $2 while neighboring Campbell Elementary is $2.55. Saratoga, Los Gatos and Union Districts are set at $2.50.

The Cambrian School Board has recommended the increase as well as the Santa Clara County Taxpayer's Association and the District's nine Home and School Clubs.

BLACKFORD BEAT

BY DIANE GIPSON CAROL COOK

The last two weeks have been very eventful for the Blackford spring sports teams. On Friday, March 11, our swim team met with Camden and on Saturday with Bellerme.

Both teams met with defeat against the Braves. Also on Saturday, the tennis squad showed their great skill as they defeated Homestead's team.

Both the swim and track teams were engaged in events last Friday. The swim team met Saratoga in Blackford's pools, the track team journeyed to Los Gatos for their meet.

The hilarious "Harlem Clowns" invaded Blackford's basketball court for a game of surprises, excitement and just plain fun.

Blackford's "Faculty Five" stood up against the Clowns with great courage, and, at the mercy of their opponents, did surprisingly well. The final score was 56-53. Of course the Clowns won.

On Wednesday evening A. G. A. (Athletic Girls' Association) held an open potluck dinner for all members. All new members were introduced to everyone, and it was a fun time for all.

Another event for A. G. A. was the tryouts for next fall's members. The girls who are interested have to pass several different tests of athletic skill. Those who passed and will be joining next year are:

Freshmen: Pat Cavallaro, Susan Clark, Randi Crews, Sherise Dobien, Debby Eddy, Mickey Keglmeier, Kathy Miller, Susan Sealey, Karen Silva, Ginger Snyder, Kathy Stagg, Peggy Todd and Jan Rohe;

Sophomores: Dee Lynn Crews, Kathy Crombie, Cathy Evangelho, Sherry Keresey, Sylvia Mednick, Marsha Sims, Teresa Sowa; Juniors: Marianne Brand, Sandi Fehr, Rose Gradel, Christine Grevstad, Linda Jensen, Lynn Shertzer and Chris Tollefson.

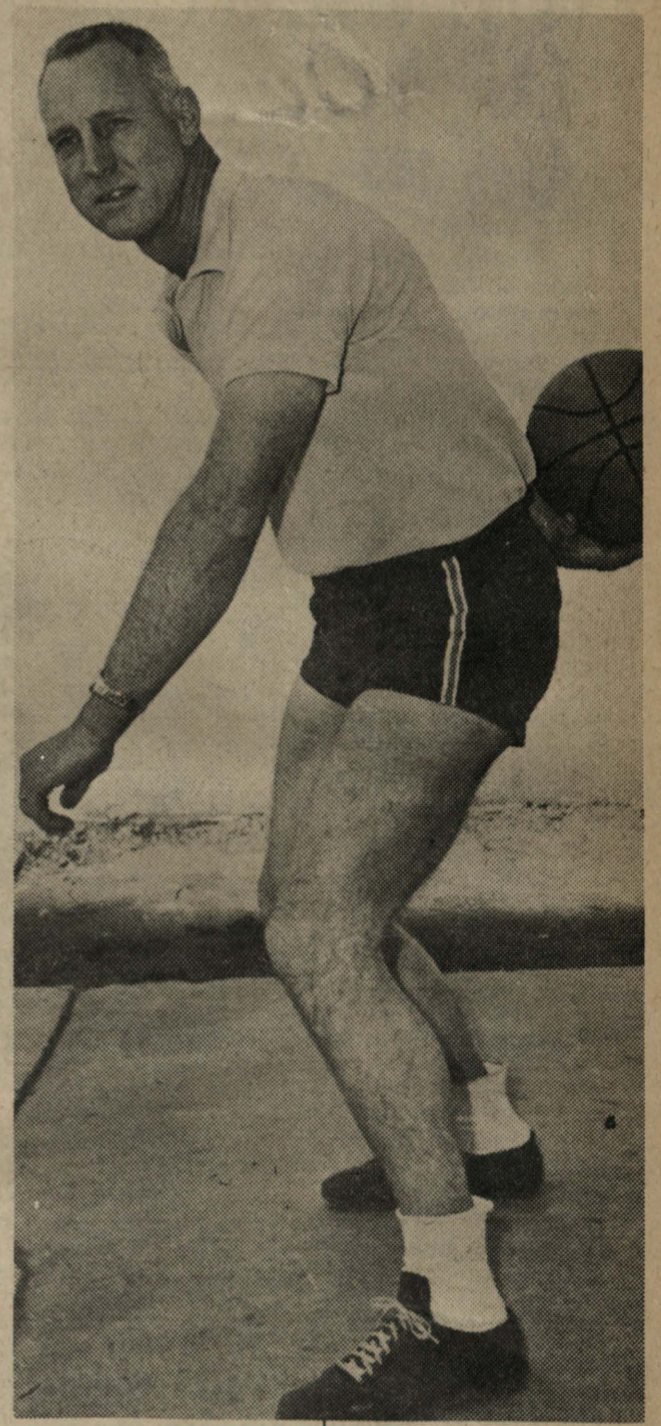

Friday, March 18, marked the occasion for the Senior Ball. The ball was held at La Rinconada and lasted from eight until 12. The after-ball party kept going until early Saturday morning.

The Blackford faculty recently chose the four seniors who will compete for the $1,000 scholarship presented by the Bank of America each year.

Chosen for their fields of study, the students are: Barbara Carnet, math and science; Sharon Wilson, vocational arts; Vicki Burton, liberal arts; and Bob Campbell, fine arts. Congratulations!

Another award-winning duo is Dennis Awtry and Bob Gilbert. Dennis, our record-breaking basketball center, and Bob, both seniors, were informed that they were finalists in the National Merit Contest.

They will receive four-year $1000 scholarships for their achievements. Congratulations to you also!

BASKETBALL COACH TO BATTLE COMICS -- Bert (Sweetwater) Robinson, scoring star of the Campbell High School Faculty "Vow Boys" will battle the Harlem Clowns in an exhibition contest at the Campbell High Gym on Thursday night, March 24. The public is invited.

Civil servants are too often the butt of unkind remarks. So this week's column will play the other side and lend a hand to a dedicated group of public servants who must do a gigantic job before March 31—that of enrolling all over 65 who wish to participate in the medicare program which Congress passed last year.

In my Congressional District, the Social Security office at 1010 The Alameda, in San Jose, is working long hours under the able leadership of Mr. John J. Cassidy, the District Manager. In the 14 years I have been in Congress, it has been my pleasure to work with Mr. Cassidy and his dedicated group of civil servants.

They always have rendered outstanding service in a completely nonpartisan manner and I have been impressed with the compassionate human feelings which guide them in their work. Now with the March 31 deadline for the medicare sign up approaching, their efforts to afford every olderster the opportunity to claim his right under the law have been almost a crusade.

To cooperate with them, I urge every person who is 65 years of age, whether he is covered by the Social Security Act or not, to contact the Social Security office at 1010 The Alameda, San Jose, or to phone that office, 286-2525, for further information.

If a person is physically unable to go to the San Jose office, the simple mailing of a postal card giving his name, address, date and place of birth, and telephone number, with a request that he be contacted will be sufficient.

Any person who reached the age of 65 on December 31 of last year will not have another opportunity to enroll until October 1, 1967. Even then benefits for late applicants would not begin until July 1, 1968.

Everyone who now receives Social Security or railroad retirement benefits will automatically be covered under Part A of medicare which includes only some hospitalization and nursing home care. It does not provide anything for doctor's bills, surgery, and other hospital benefits.

Part B provides for a $50 deductible insurance policy which will pay 80% of the "reasonable cost" of physicians' and surgeons' services. This is a voluntary program and does require registration.

To be covered participants agree to pay $3 a month which is matched by the Federal government. This insurance cannot be made available until 1968 to any person who was 65 at the end of last year and fails to sign up by March 31.

As of March 15, 15.3 million, or 80%, of the 19 million persons eligible for the voluntary plan were signed up; 2,800,000 have not responded.

The Social Security Administration has done everything within its power to reach all eligible persons and to make it as easy as possible to sign up. But as is always the case, the last minute rush will be overwhelming—and many persons who want the program will awaken on April 1 first to realize that they have lost their opportunity.

Mr. Cassidy and his staff at 1010 The Alameda won't complain about the long hours.

Cambrian tax hike gets ok of tax group

The Cambrian School District tax election on March 29 has been endorsed by the Santa Clara County Taxpayer's Association.

Dale Scott, director of the taxpayers group, stated "The Cambrian School District financial structure is such that the Santa Clara County Taxpayer's Association endorses passage of the 50-cent increase at the March 29 election."

All of the district's nine Home and School Clubs as well as the Cambrian Citizen's Committee, Faculty Association and School Board have also endorsed this election. They urge a "yes" vote to maintain a realistic balance between adequate financing and quality education. They point out that Cambrian District educational program is presently operating under the lowest tax rate for districts of comparable size in the county. The $2.50 suggested rate according to proponents will bring Cambrian up to an average with neighboring districts and permit continuation of the present program and finance the staffing, equipment and supplies needed for two new schools.

Continuation of the present inadequate tax rate will drastically limit the educational

CUSD Science Fair to be held Saturday

Approximately 200 School, 295 W. Cherry Lane. This year's ninth annual fair represents the projects of fourth through eighth grade students in the nineteen schools of the district.

The public is invited to visit the Science Fair from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. when the exhibits will be on display.

The fair provides an opportunity for the public to view and encourage the children's interest and potential in the areas of science. At the same time it gives the students a chance to exchange ideas, compare notes, and broaden the interests in science which they have in common. The science projects are judged primarily on the student's knowledge of his exhibit, and related areas. What is important is that the youngster has been motivated, inspired or spurred on to do some digging and organizing and boys took part.

Den 3 presented awards to Arthur Gonzales, Mark Lawson, Michael McGovern and Anthony Montalbano. Scott Cunningham is the new denner with Richard Zurlo serving as his assistant. Strong for America

Highway Patrol needs manpower

The California Highway Patrol has issued a call for applicants for the position of State Traffic Officer to meet its schedule for an expanded patrol.

According to Captain R. P. Bliss, commander of the Patrol's San Jose area, applications for the position are available at the local office.

"The applications must be completed and filed no later than midnight, April 15," said Captain Bliss, "since the statewide examination will be given on May 14."

Interested men must be 21 to 31, high school graduates or the equivalent, in good health with no disabling physical defects, have normal hearing and vision, be 5 feet 9 to 6 feet 6, and have been California residents for at least one year.

Income tax office offers aid by phone

Taxpayer assistance by telephone is being expanded this year for Northern California, Joseph M. Cullen, District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern California, has announced. To improve service, he urged people with tax questions to call early in the filing period to avoid the last minute rush.

Experience has shown that seemingly difficult questions can frequently be handled by telephone. The Internal Revenue Service started organizing telephone assistance right after reorganization in 1952.

GARDENER'S CHECKLIST

1. If you haven't done so already, you should cut back your geraniums, pelargoniums and fuchsias. Loosen the soil around them, and when you see signs of new growth start feeding.
2. Plant daylilies in any good garden soil. They'll grow in sun or part shade. You can count on them for garden color in the summer's hottest weather.
3. You'll find choice chrysanthemum plants in the nursery this month. Try the low-growing, compact cushion types for summer color. They make an excellent colorful trim along the edge of a lawn or do well in pots. Chrysanthemums should have rich soil, and regular feeding and watering throughout the growing season.
4. Check now with your nurseryman on crabgrass control. Don't wait. Get into action now before the seeds germinate.
5. You'll find nurseries teeming with a color wave of azaleas in bloom. It's best to buy them now when you can choose the exact shades and types of flowers you want from the hundreds available.

For the most effective display in the garden, get three or five or seven of either the same variety or of different varieties whose colors harmonize and whose leaf and flower sizes are about the same. Space the plants with only about six inches between the branch tips now, and when they finally get overcrowded, you can transplant every other one.

Stolen T-Bird is recovered

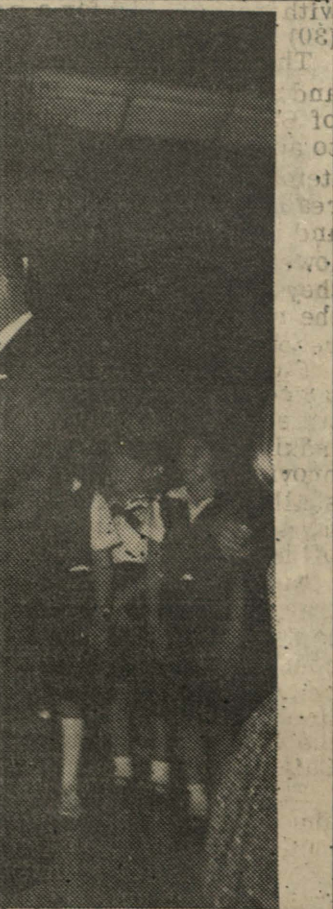

Henry C. Gregory, 828 Loyaltown Dr., Campbell, had his 1961 Ford Thunderbird convertible back in his possession, after a purported buyer took it for a "test drive" and never came back.

San Jose Police recovered the vehicle at First and Alma Sts., San Jose. According to Gregory a man answered his advertisement in the San Jose Mercury and asked to take the car out for a "drive." After a long wait, Gregory became concerned and called Campbell Police. The vehicle was recovered, and a suspect, Richard Ray Persons, 22, 1525 S. First St., San Jose, was arrested.

Reading skills helped by visual - aid machine them."

To meet these demands, a developmental reading laboratory program is being offered at Westmont High School by Mrs. Louise Minnis, and at Campbell High School by John Baas.

The unique course makes use of the newest teaching device in the field of reading, the Perceptoscope, developed by the Perceptual Development Laboratories of St. Louis, Mo.

This versatile machine combines the characteristics of tachistoscopes, a device which flashes words on and off the screen, for quick recognition; motion picture projectors, and reading accelerators or pacers. It also provides a flexible method of controlling eye fixations in a manner similar to the normal reading process.

By use of the Perceptoscope in the program, the students can greatly increase their line-by-line reading proficiency. A continuous testing program allows each student to keep a running account of the progress he makes, both in speed, and in comprehension of the reading material.

Hill said that the course is designed to break poorly developed or incorrect reading habits and to build in their place efficient reading and comprehension skills.

The program, at present, is not remedial reading, but is rather designed to make average and above-average students faster and more efficient readers.

A series of pre-tests are given, designed to diagnose the students' reading rate and comprehension abilities. This is followed by testing on articles in practice reading books and material projected on to the screen by the Perceptoscope controlled reader.

During the course, the Perceptoscope is being used to teach reading techniques in eight lecture films, covering survey reading, scanning, critical reading, word analysis, and other language and reading skills.

At the end of the course, students will take a post-test, so that they, their parents and teacher can arrive at a total picture of progress throughout the program.

The two teachers report that student interest and attention is usually very high, because no "passing" or "failing" grades are being given.

"The program is set up to measure students' reading skills and present a comprehensive analysis of progress during and after the course," Hill said, "and initial reports of progress are encouraging."

If results of these pilot programs live up to expectations, Hill said, it is planned to expand this program to other schools in the district.

Reliving great moments of the past, recorded voices of history play back at the touch of a button, excerpts from the memorable address to his people by the King of England when he abdicated the throne for the woman he loved; the dramatic eye-witness account of a radio commentator who cries as he broadcasts the unbelievable sight of the Van Hindenburg Zepelin exploding in mid-air; the moving inaugural address of Franklin D. Roosevelt; the thrilling description by Russ Hodges of the Giants winning the pennant, and many, many more. Famous historical photographs are also a part of the display, and visitors to the exhibit receive a set of reproductions of newspaper front pages.

Stepping back into the past is a daily event at American Savings and Loan Association of California, through a time machine called "Voices of History." The audio-visual display will be in the lobby of the Stevens Creek branch at 2915 Stevens Creek Blvd., from March 23 through April 22, according to Robert E. Treiry, manager.
